

Apropos - Our on-line newsletter

For the Staff of the Non-Public Funds, Canadian Forces, Apropos is the national strategic communications vehicle. Through this online newsletter, you can keep on top of corporate developments across Canada and Europe. Find out about best and new practices, about policies that have been implemented and acquire general knowledge on what our employees are up to.

The Communications team request your assistance in keeping it vital. If you have a scoop please let them know. To learn how it is done, simply email the Human Resources Planning Manager to let him know that you are interested in submitting an article. He will guide you from there.

Be in the know with Apropos!